Anti-Reds in Congo Join to Fight Leftists

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—President Joseph Kasavubu's government today joined with two other anti-Communist Congo forces in a united front against leftist rebels. As they signed a military agreement, the rebels were reported withdrawing a spearhead pointing toward Leopoldville.

U.N. spotter planes reported Antoine Gizenga's leftist soldiers pulled out of the base they set up in Luluabourg, leaving their advance units stranded. Thus the military threat to this capital seemed to have faded away—at least temporarily as suddenly as it began.

The soldiers from Stanleyville, where political heirs of slain Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba have their headquarters, occupied Luluabourg last Friday after traveling halfway across the Congo. Luluabourg lies about 500 miles east of Leopoldville. Advance units had pushed 100 miles or more toward the capital.

U.N. reports said the rebels appeared to have lost heart after being ordered off the Luluabourg airport by Ghanaian soldiers of the United Nations. In addition, U.N. spokesman said, they seemed to have become suspicious of negotiations going on between their own officers and officers of the Luluabourg garrison.

The airport incident started Monday when a detachment of the original Congolese garrison turned up demanding a share in Continued from Page Three

Slayer of Arkansan Is Sought

PECOS, Tex. (AP) — Texas authorities widened their hunt today for Oscar A. Kernohan, AWOL soldier from Ft. Knox, Ky., charged Monday night with murder in the death of an Arkansan man.

In San Antonio, Tex., where he is charged with passing bad checks, officers have a pickup order out for Kernohan in an attempt to question him on the disappearance of his wife and stepson.

The body of Norman Cox, 20, of Benton, Ark., was found by a hitchhiker Saturday in a culvert. Chief Deputy Sheriff Gary Ingram, who filed the murder charges against Kernohan, said a wallet with Cox's identification papers were found in Kernohan's abandoned Dec. 20 in Van Horn, Tex., after an accident.

Kernohan, seriously injured in the accident, disappeared after his release from an El Paso hospital. He and his wife and her 2½-year-old son by a former marriage had left San Antonio the day of the accident.

Clothing and unopened Christmas presents were left behind, and the woman and boy have not been heard from since.

A dirty rumpled dress, a blood-stained brassier and a 22-caliber rifle were found in the auto. Police said Cox had been shot with a .22.

Thinks U. S. May Control Billboards

WASHINGTON (AP)—Decrying billboards along new superhighways, President Kennedy said today that if the states don't regulate them it may be necessary to adopt federal controls or a special billboard tax.

In a special message to Congress on highways, Kennedy urged that the states be given a bigger incentive to adopt their own control programs.

As things now stand, he said, a handful of large advertisers are reaping a great windfall from the new roads through signs which "tend to detract from both the beauty and the safety of the routes they line."

The federal government now offers a special bonus to states which agree to regulate billboards along interstate roads. However, Maryland is the only state which has qualified for this and the offer is due to expire on June 30.

Kennedy said the bonus should be doubled and the deadline extended to June 30, 1965. The present incentive is an extra federal contribution of ½ of 1 per cent toward the cost of the new roads. The regular contribution is 90 per cent.

Retirement Vote Passed Up by House

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House turned down again today a chance to vote on Gov. Orval F. Faubus' proposed $60 million institutional construction bond issue.

Columbia County Rep. Harry B. Colay called up the bond bill during the morning hour, a time usually reserved for non-controversial matters.

The House sat quietly while Colay explained the bill, but when Pulaski County Rep. Gayle Windsor took the floor to speak against the bill, a dozen hands shot up, forcing withdrawal of the bill.

Under House rules, objections from five members can force withdrawal of a bill from consideration during the morning hour. Colay didn't go into detail in his explanation. "This is the governor's plan and you all know what it is," he said.

Quachita County Rep. David Pryor asked Colay if he would have any objections to calling in state fiscal authorities to explain various provisions of the bill. "If you don't know about it now," Colay snapped "you never will."

Windsor objected to the power the bill gives the state Board of Finance. He said the Board—composed of the governor, the comptroller, treasurer, auditor and the bank commissioner — would make all decisions about the bond issue.

"This board has on it the governor and two of his appointees," Windsor said.

Windsor said agents' fees and interest on the bonds would cost $23 million in the next 20 years. "He'll be paying back $83 million," Windsor said. "We're mortgaging our expected increases in revenues and I don't think we should do that."

Windsor said the only emergency construction need is $12 million for the State Hospital.

Windsor was still talking when several House members began to shout, "pull it down, pull it down." Speaker John Bethell then asked for a show of hands and the bill was withdrawn.

Under the Faubus plan the bond money would be allocated for construction at the University of Arkansas, the State Hospital, seven state colleges and the Children's Colony.

Earlier today the House passed a bill to create a state Building Commission with authority over construction projects except at the above named institutions and projects planned by the Highway Department and Game & Fish Commission.

That board would be composed of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and purchasing director.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislature exhibited the calm before the storm Monday in anticipation of today's teacher retirement showdown.

There were only a few important pieces of business Monday. The House defeated a bill to establish a state Division of Weights and Standards. The Senate took action that probably will kill a bill to set a cash price-credit price on installment purchases.

The minds of legislators clearly were on the pending fight in the House between forces of Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the Arkansas Education Association over how much the state will contribute to the teacher retirement system.

Revamping the retirement plan has become the most controversial issue of the session. Faubus added a new angle to Continued from Page Three

Presbyterians Plan Sunday Pilgrimage

The Session of the First Presbyterian Church has been called to meet in the Chapel Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. ## Living Costs Drop Some in U. S. Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs declined slightly in January — the first drop in 12 months.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today its consumers price index dropped by a tenth of one per cent because of lower prices for clothing, used cars, eggs, milk, fresh fruits and tomatoes.

The index fell to 127.4 from December's record level of 127.5. In the index, 100 represents average prices in 1947-49.

Despite the drop from December, January prices were 1.6 per cent higher than in January 1960. The index rose in every month last year except August, when it held steady.

Because prices did not rise in January, there will be no change in wages of about a million workers in the auto industry and related fields whose pay is adjusted to the living cost index.

Robert J. Myers, BLS deputy commissioner, attributed much of the January price drop to weather conditions, although adding that a recession decline in demand doubtless had some effect.

Myers said the weather curtailed clothing sales in December and that department stores, because of large January inventories, offered sharp price reductions in women's suits and coats. There also were some price cuts in shoes and other clothing items.

Average clothing prices dropped by 1.1 per cent from December to January.

Used car prices were down 2.5 per cent and Myers said this development was influenced, to, by the weather.

Food prices, on the average, were down a tenth of 1 per cent. As for the February outlook, Myers said he would expect little change although a drop between January and February is normal.

In a separate report, the bureau said the spendable earnings and buying power of factory workers were virtually unchanged in January.

Spendable earnings take have pay after taxes—for a factory worker with three dependents amounted to $79.97 a week, the same as in December.

Earnings normally drop in January following the pre-Christmas work rush, but, the bureau said, the decline came in December this winter because of severe snowstorms which cut back hours of work.

While used car prices dropped significantly in January, price tags on new cars were unchanged at levels slightly below those of a year ago.

Housing prices also were unchanged but the cost of medical care rose by three-tenths of one per cent. Charges of medical insurance and hospital rooms rose.

Fuel oil prices were up 3.6 per cent, about one-third more than the average January increase over the past six years. The Kennedy administration has announced it is looking into the winter rise in fuel oil prices.

Khrushchev May Again Visit U. S.

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government has let the Soviet people know that Premier Khrushchev is thinking of a return visit to the United Nations and the possibility of a meeting with President Kennedy while in the United States.

Films of two of the President's news conferences were shown on television Monday night, including newsmen's questions to Kennedy on whether he would meet Khrushchev if the Soviet premier visits the U.N. General Assembly opening next Tuesday. Kennedy replied only that he hadn't heard yet whether Khrushchev was coming.

The showing of the films was an unprecedented gesture. It also was the first time that the Soviet people learned that a new Khrushchev visit to the United Nations is possible.

Such ideas are rarely put in the public mind unless they are likely to become accomplished facts. Kennedy's statement gave the Soviet public the impression that the initiative for a visit is up to the Soviet Union and that Khrushchev would be welcome in the United States.

(Soviet diplomats in Washington have been active in spreading the idea that Khrushchev would like to make a visit, and diplomatic circles in the U.S. capital have said they would not be surprised if Khrushchev comes to the United States late in April, when the assembly session will be winding up.)

Televising of the conferences here also coincides with the return of U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson from talks with Kennedy in Washington.

The ambassador is carrying a message from the President reportedly expressing his full confidence in Thompson and hope that talks between the envoy and Khrushchev will result in better relations between Washington and Moscow.

Two-year-old Barbara Marie Daniels died in the flames. Her brother, James Edward, 3, crawled to a door where he was snatched up by neighbors, but he died about 45 minutes after being admitted to a hospital.

Pair Held in Slaying at Houston, Tex.

NEW YORK (AP)—A Houston, Tex., couple wanted in connection with the murder of a Houston real estate man were held today in lieu of $50,000 bail each by U.S. Commissioner Earle N. Bishop for a removal hearing Friday.

Leslie Douglas Ashley, 23, a native of Hot Springs, Ark., a convicted female impersonator, and his companion, Carolyn Ann Lima, 18, were seized by FBI agents Sunday as they entered a house where they had shared a room for the past two weeks. Ashley was dressed in feminine apparel, the FBI said.

They had been sought for questioning in the death of Fred A. Tones Jr., 44, whose badly burned body, shot six times, was found in a ditch near Houston last Feb. 6. Technically, they were charged with illegal transportation of a stolen car, which belonged to Tones, from Houston to New Orleans Feb. 8.

However, Asst. U.S. Atty. Greenville Garside said murder charges were filed against them Monday in Houston.

Local Firm Buys Dallas Company

Delight Egg Farms, Inc., Hope, has acquired the property and business of Sunny York Farms, located in Dallas, Texas. The announcement was made today by John Radolph, General Manager of Delight Egg Farms.

Sunny York Farms is an egg processing and distribution business. It was formerly owned and operated by the Chickasha Cotton Oil Co. Prior to the acquisition by Chickasha in 1959, it was operated as the Humphrey Egg Co. for over 25 years.

Sunny York Farms will be operated as a separate division of Delight Egg Farms. It will engage in the grading, packaging and distribution of cartoned eggs in Dallas and Fort Worth.

Delight Egg Farms is engaged in the production and marketing of eggs. According to Mr. Radolph, they now own nearly 300,000 hens that produce about 200,000 eggs every day. The acquisition of Sunny York Farms provides a marketing outlet for some of these eggs. Retail stores, restaurants and hotels in Dallas and Ft. Worth can now be served directly by Delight Egg Farms.

Pay as You Go Tax Formula for Super Road

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today proposed a tax formula for financing superhighways by placing a greater share of the burden on big trucks.

The President, in a 3,500-word special message to Congress, said his pay-as-you-go plan would complete 41,000 miles of express roads by 1972 without resort to a higher federal gasoline tax.

However, he said Congress should not permit a scheduled June 30 reduction in the gas tax from 4 cents a gallon to 3 cents. And he added that if his proposals for heavier levies on trucks are rejected, Congress should be prepared to increase gasoline taxes on all users.

Kennedy's plan would boost taxes and fees on heavy trucks, diesel fuel, tires, tubes and retread rubber. While truckers would bear the brunt of these, Kennedy said even so they would not pay "their fair share of the cost of this program."

The President also made some sharp comments about roadside billboards, which he said "tend to detract from both the beauty and safety of the routes they line."

Kennedy said the states should be given a bigger incentive to regulate billboards. If that doesn't work, he said federal control or billboard taxes might be necessary.

In arguing the merits of superhighways, Kennedy said they will save each year at least 4,000 lives, 42,000 years of travel time and 9 billion stops for red lights and intersections.

Declaring the road program vital to the nation's security, safety and economic growth, Kennedy said "I am wholly opposed to either stretching out or cutting back" the work. He was equally emphatic about paying for the job out of revenues from taxes on highway users without dipping into general funds and unbalancing the budget.

The only time regular Treasury funds should be used, he said, would be in times of recession. He added that he believes anti-slump moves already proposed will be sufficiently effective to make such action unnecessary.

If a later reading of economic signposts indicates otherwise, Kennedy said, Congress might want to use general funds to repair winter road damage in areas of substantial unemployment.

The President said the road program is in real peril because of a threatened shortage of funds. He said that if the job is to be finished on schedule federal revenues must be increased by $900 million a year after June 30. Otherwise, he said, the program will take an extra five years.

The federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of the new superhighways and the states the rest. The total bill is expected to approach $40 billion by 1972.

To raise an additional $900 million a year, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower last month recommended that the gas tax be boosted to 4½ cents a gallon.

Kennedy called this "clearly acceptable." However, he said that because of economic conditions he would "prefer not to raise taxes on the general consumer at this time."

His alternative suggestion: provide $900 million a year by preventing the scheduled 1-cent cut in the gas tax and raise the remaining $900 million through the heavier taxes and fees which would bear most heavily on truckers.

The Kennedy plan would increase federal gasoline taxes on all users.

Relations Only Friendly Frustration

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev are up to their necks in friendly frustration.

They have laid a pleasant foundation for a future meeting, which seems inevitable, like two men who wanted to bury a hatchet but not in each other's head.

They have exchanged cordial messages and avoided name-calling and personal attacks which would make a meeting impossible, as Khrushchev made a meeting with former President Eisenhower impossible because of what he said.

But beyond that there's no basic difference between Khrushchev's relations with Kennedy and his relations with Eisenhower. With both his main policy has been consistent: push where he sees a chance.

The chance he sees now is in the Congo. Although Kennedy wants the United Nations' forces to stay there to keep the peace, Khrushchev wants them out altogether.

Russia's chance for influence among the Congolese and a shattering penetration of Africa would be vastly improved with the U.N. forces gone. From the Russian viewpoint, this is natural enough.

It's also natural enough for Kennedy to want nothing of the kind. So, while Kennedy has extended a friendly hand to Khrushchev, he has kept the other fist clenched.

There was nothing gentle about Kennedy's warning to Russia—without mentioning either Russia or Khrushchev by name—not to try to move into the Congo.

He told the Russians and Red Chinese in his State of the Union message that soft talk from them would leave him unconvinced that they are not trying to take over the world.

At the same time both men are getting their governments ready to talk seriously about disarmament. This will take a lot of talking and a lot of time.

Khrushchev says he's anxious for disarmament. He says he's a believer in peaceful co-existence. But what he means by that and what Kennedy means are not necessarily the same thing.

Because they are not the possibility of disarmament seems a long way off.

So long as the United States is equipped to fight an all-out war, it will have the power to discourage the Russian and Chinese Communists from starting small wars since they might mushroom into big ones.

If the Russian idea of peaceful coexistence means pushing into one nation after another and taking over, through pressure from without or within, then it would become a very unpeaceful coexistence.

Since Kennedy says "we must never be lulled into believing that either (Russia or Red China) has yielded its ambitions for world domination," then he will have to remain able to deal firmly with them.

He's firm with them now, while Khrushchev tries to push in the Congo. So, while Kennedy and the Russian on the surface deal in the

Costs, Delays in Missile Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Delays and cost bulges in the nation's multibillion-dollar military missile program are under many-sided scrutiny by Congress.

One center of interest is why the top priority program started in 1957 to build launching facilities—for 450 Atlas, Titan and Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missiles—is months behind schedule.

Only nine Atlas missiles are reported in place at bases now, and cost bulges in the nation's multibillion-dollar military missile program are under many-sided scrutiny by Congress.

Williams Tells of U. S. Stand

DAR-ESS-SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP) — G. Mennen Williams today reaffirmed Washington's stand against unilateral action in the Congo.

The U.S. assistant secretary of state for African affairs told reporters as he prepared to fly to Leopoldville that his country would like to see a Congo solution reached through the United Nations.

Williams spent 60 hours here and in Zanzibar.

In 1860 Arkansas had one doctor to every 350 persons.

none of them in protected underground silos such as are planned to house them.

The Army, Air Force, private industrial contractors and labor unions all are involved in the inquiries into delays of up to six months in meeting schedules.

In the House, a subcommittee headed by Rep. Harry R. Sheppard, D-Calif., has made public testimony taken in its hearings.

Contractors told the subcommittee the cost of building bases has skyrocketed because of many government modifications. Some of them urged that the contracts be placed under one agency instead of being handled by both the Army Engineers and the Air Force.

Sheppard said "things are in a mess" in the program. He said the testimony showed "failure of top-level management to exercise proper control" over the program.

The Senate Preparedness subcommittee will start an investigation this week of what Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., called "enormous increases" in missile program costs.

And the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan D-Ark., plans early hearings on the reasons for delays in production of missiles and construction of missile bases. Particularly, it will look into the extent to which a series of wildcat strikes by labor unions may have contributed to these.

the controversy Monday. He said some teachers are afraid they will have to lobby at each legislature for their retirement system. But the governor added that if everyone could agree on a sound retirement program, he would be willing to put it into the constitution.

Hot Springs public school teachers voted Friday night 113-46 in favor of the AEA plan.

Bills were introduced in both houses Monday to set up a commission to study retirement systems for teachers and other state employees and report to the next legislature.

The governor's teacher retirement plan was amended Monday. It originally set the state's share of retirement at $3 million a year, but it was upped to $3.7 million in the amendment for 1961-62 and $3.9 million for 62-64.

The AEA wants the state to put in $6 million a year, and says anything less would result in an unsound retirement plan.

The state Division of Weights and Standards bill that the House turned down Monday would have set up a state agency to check and regulate weighing and measuring devices. Notice of reconsideration was given and the bill may be called up for another vote within three days.

The vote was 41 for and 15 against, but 51 votes were needed to pass.

The controversial cash price - credit price bill is in this shape: The Senate had passed it, but Monday it recalled the bill from the House and the House let it go back. Now the bill probably will lie without action in the Senate for the next nine days and die when the legislature adjourns.

It would have permitted contractors for installment sales to set out a cash price and a higher time payment price. And the difference was not to be considered interest.

In the House Monday, a proposed constitutional amendment was introduced to set up interest on loan and installment contracts of $3,000 or less on a sliding scale.

The seller or lender would be allowed to charge $12 per $100 on contracts of $300 or less. Between $300 and $900, interest of 10 per year could be charged. From $900 to $1,500, the maximum charge would be $8 per $100. And over $1,500, it would be $5 per $100. Most of the House's time was taken up with non-controversial bills.

A bill to allow banks to establish teller windows inside cities where the main bank is located was passed. The House turned down an amendment which would have facilitated the appeal route for banks unsatisfied with rulings of the state Banking Commission.

For the second time, the House defeated a bill to require county judges to give public notice when they plan to condemn property for road purposes. The House passed bills to disqualify aldermen who move from the ward from which they were elected and to permit dentists to form corporations for doing business.

increase the annual federal license fee on a 45,000-pound tractor-trailer from $27.50 to $95. The tax on a 100-pound truck tire would jump from $8 to $10 and trucks burning diesel fuel would pay a tax of 7 cents a gallon instead of the present 4 cents.

The biggest effect on the average motorist would be the higher tire tax—a matter of an extra 40 cents on a typical 20-pound tire.

The airport was then being manned jointly by Ghanaian U.N. soldiers and a detachment of the Stanleyville soldiers.

The Ghanaians refused to let units of both Congolese factions stay at the airport.

"So they requested them all to leave," the U.N. spokesman said. The military pact signed today brings together the squabbling anti-Communist leaders in the Congo—at least for the time being.

An agreement signed in Elisabethville, capital of the secessionist province of Katanga, provides badly needed aid for Kasavubu's disorganized forces.

It was signed by Premier Joseph Ileo, who represented Kasavubu's Leopoldville government; Albert Kalonji, leader of the mining state of South Kasai, and Katanga President Moise Tshombe.

Under terms of the pact they will pool their troops to combat the "Communist dictatorial regime" of Gizenga in Stanleyville.

Permanent contacts for both military and political cooperation are to be set up.

Kasavubu has the most to gain from the agreement. Tshombe's 5,000 well-paid soldiers are the Congo's best-trained and supplied and are led by Belgian officers who can coordinate strategy. Kalonji has about 1,000 soldiers and an undetermined number of Baluba tribesmen.

The Leopoldville government's 7,500 men are scattered and disorganized. Kasavubu called for general mobilization Monday in an attempt to strengthen his forces.

Gizenga's soldiers, numbering between 5,000 and 7,000, are spread out in the sections of the Congo—more than one-third of the country—his regime controls. Tshombe also has reinforced his military posture by calling off his agreement with the United Nations to suspend military ac-

Conviction of Wilkinson Is Upheld

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld the conviction of Frank Wilkinson, who refused to tell a House subcommittee on un-American activities whether he was a Communist.

Wilkinson, who is from Los Angeles, is field secretary for the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee. He was questioned at a subcommittee hearing July 30, 1958, in Atlanta, Ga., when the group was investigating Communist activities in the South.

Justice Stewart delivered the 5-4 decision. Justice Black wrote a dissenting opinion in which Chief Justice Warren and Justice Douglas joined. Douglas wrote a separate dissenting opinion in which Warren and Black joined. Justice Brennan also wrote a separate dissenting opinion.

Convicted by a jury in federal court in Atlanta, Wilkinson was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. The Justice Department described him as an important member of the Communist party who had been sent to Atlanta for propaganda purposes.

Wilkinson's appeal contended the committee intruded on rights protected by the First Amendment. It questioned the committee's right to subpoena its own critics, and questioned whether the committee had a legislative purpose in calling Wilkinson or merely "the unlawful purpose of harassing and exposing" the witness.

More Time on Amendments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The House Constitutional Amendments Committee sifted 37 proposed amendments at a meeting Friday night, but the chairman, Hensley Rep. Talbot Field, said another meeting would be called for action on the measures.

The committee may select five to take into a conference with the Senate Constitutional Amendments and Elections Committee. The two groups will select three to put on the 1962 general election ballot.

Twelve proposals were withdrawn at the hearing Monday night in a downtown hotel.

The proposed amendment getting the most attention was one tion and resuming, as he put it, Katanga's "freedom of action."

As the president called for a general mobilization, G. Mennen Williams, U.S. assistant secretary of state for African affairs, arrived "to find out what is going on." Under criticism by whites elsewhere for his earlier statements supporting African nationalism, Williams was not talking here.

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the kind expressions of sympathy in our recent bereavement.

Kansas State, Marquette Join NCAA Lineup

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas State's Wildcats and the young Warriors of Marquette have joined the lineup for the NCAA basketball championships, bringing to eight the number of schools set for the 24-team national tournament next month.

Kansas State clinched the Big Eight Conference's assignment in the tournament, whipping Nebraska 77-67 Monday night—an hour or so before Marquette announced acceptance of a bid to play as an at-large team in the NCAA's Midwest regional.

Texas Tech, still leading the Southwest Conference, failed in its bid to join the NCAA lineup Monday night—losing 95-91 in overtime to Rice at Houston. Tech at 10-3, has clinched at least a tie for the SWC title but Arkansas and Texas A&M both are 9-4 and could share the title and force a playoff or coin flip unless Tech beats defending champion Texas in its last loop game on Thursday.

Kentucky, on an eight-game winning streak in a desperate bid for an NCAA berth; Iowa, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, Xavier of Ohio, DePaul and New Mexico State won other key games on Monday night's college program.

Kentucky, with Ned Jennings scoring 23 points and Billy Ray Lickert 21, crushed Auburn 77-51 for a 9-4 Southeastern Conference victory with one game left. Vanderbilt matched Kentucky at 9-4 with one to go, beating Georgia 87-76 and their duel for the runner up spot took some of the spotlight from Mississippi State, which clinched the Southeastern Conference title with an 11-2 record after clipping Tulane 62-37.

Mississippi State, now 19-4 overall, will not play in the NCAA tournament because of the unwritten state law against competition with Negroes. As a result, the next eligible team in line—Vanderbilt or Kentucky—will draw the tournament assignment.

Both Arkansas and Texas A&M kept alive in the SWC race—the Razorbacks beating Southern Methodist 88-82 in overtime, and the Aggies routing Baylor 90-69.

Iowa, sixth ranked nationally, overcame a 35-point performance by Purdue ace Terry Dischinger and beat the Boilermakers, 73-62. The Hawks now are 9-2 and could share the Big Ten title with national leader Ohio State should the so-far unbeatable Bucks lose their last two games while Iowa won its last three. Don Nelson scored 26 points and sophomore Matt Szukovsky 20 for Iowa, which pushed its overall record to 17-4.

Elsewhere in the Big Ten, Tom McGrann scored 21 points, Bob Griggs 20 and Dick Erickson 19 as Minnesota spilled Illinois 65-58. Northwestern beat Indiana 60-58 in overtime on Ralph Wells' basket with six seconds left; and Tom Hughbanks' 17 points led Wisconsin to a 76-68 triumph over Michigan.

Ced Price's 19 points were tops for Kansas State, leading the Big Eight with a 10-2 mark to 8-3 for NCAA-ineligible Kansas. Oklahoma State downed Iowa State 56-55 and Colorado beat Missouri 70-67 in other Big Eight games.

DePaul, in the National Invitation Tournament field along with Memphis State, Providence, Detroit, Army, Miami of Florida, Dayton, Temple and Niagara, went on a 20-0 burst in the second half and whipped Youngstown 78-55 for a 16-7 record. Xavier of Ohio (16-7) beat Miami of Ohio, 86-81 in overtime, and Chicago Loyola (14-6) routed Washington of St. Louis 105-77 with Gerry Harkness scoring 33 points.

New Mexico State, winning the first of three it must sweep to tie Arizona State U. for the Border Conference championship, thumped Hardin-Simmons 78-59; and Western Kentucky held its slim chance at a tie in the Ohio Valley loop, beating Middle Tennessee 84-73. Florida dropped back to fourth in the SEC, beaten 52-50 by Georgia Tech as All-America candidate Roger Kaiser scored 15 points.

Faubus Attends Huntsville Service

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus flew to Huntsville this afternoon to attend the funeral of a benefactor.

Faubus said J. S. Miller lent him money to help him through high school.

Miller, in his 80s, has been a public official, banker, teacher and auto dealer.

Faubus planned to fly back to Little Rock tonight.

Amity Posts Victory in B Tourney

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—First round play in the Class B state basketball tournament rolls on today with Amity, Kingsland and Hickory Ridge safely in the quarterfinal bracket.

They took opening victories yesterday, all by sizable margins, in opening first round action. Amity swamped Caddo Gap 94-68, Kingsland beat Mountain View 53-43 and Hickory Ridge nailed Lincoln 57-42.

Today, Marmaduke goes against Greenbrier at 12:30 p.m.; Valley Springs takes on Dyess at 3:10 p.m., and Oden faces Wilmet at 7:50 p.m.

First round play continues through Wednesday afternoon, and the first quarterfinal game is set for 1:50 p.m. Wednesday. Semifinals are Friday and finals are Saturday night.

The B meet is being played for the first time in conjunction with the A tournament. They're located in spacious Barton Coliseum, and the meets have yet to draw a really sizeable crowd. That probably won't come until the semifinals.

Earl House paced Hickory Ridge to its first round victory Monday night, hitting 11 of 18 field goal attempts for 22 points. Lonnie Cantrell scored 11 points for

Baseball Has Trouble Over Contracts

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Figure-weary general managers continued to be plagued by the seasonal contract signing headache today as major league baseball's official midnight holdout deadline approached with a long list of players still haggling over terms.

The transplanted Minnesota Twins hold a secure lock on first place with eight dissatisfied members, including such key personnel as long-distance hitters Jim Lemon and Harmon Killebrew and pitchers Jack Kralick and Camilo Pascual.

In all 35 players remain to be signed—11 in the National League and 24 in the expanded American, although some clubs already have classed their non-reporting operatives holdouts after instituting early arrival dates this year.

The Twins, who have moved their franchise from Washington, admitted that Lemon, a 260 hitter with 38 home runs and 100 RBI last season, and Kralick were proving difficult to sign, but said they didn't expect to reach trouble with Killebrew and Pascual.

Other former Senators reluctant to ink contracts are outfielders Pete Whisenant and Lennie Green and infielders Reno Bertoia and Jose Valdivielso. Second baseman Billy Gardner agreed to terms Monday.

The Milwaukee Braves signed pitcher Lew Burdette and infielder Billy Martin, reducing to five those unsigned and only outfielder Wes Covington apparently ready for a long holdout siege.

First baseman Joe Adcock, utility infielder Felix Mantilla and catcher Jose Torre and Merritt Raney also have not signed contracts.

The Chicago White Sox officially classed shortstop Luis Aparicio, third baseman Billy Goodman, infielder Tony Rolig and pitchers Bob Shaw and Turk Lown as holdouts Monday when they formally opened training.

Among the clubs with lesser headaches, such top players as Detroit outfielder Charley Maxwell, Kansas City pitcher Ray Herbert, New York infielder-outfielder Hector Lopez and Cleveland pitcher Barry Latman have not come around.

Baltimore has four unsigned with shortstop Ron Hansen and pitcher Steven Barber in the army and not due in camp for a month. Philadelphia has a half dozen to go—infielder Ted Lepcio signed Monday—but only the language barrier with the six Latin Americans has slowed progress, according to the club.

San Francisco closed its ranks when pitcher Juan Marichal came to terms and the Giants joined Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Washington, Boston, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago Cubs as teams with completed ledgers.

"This will greatly encourage people to install belts and will save many of their lives," Mills said.
